COFFEE TABLE BOOK

An extravagant new book, WILLIS WONDERLAND: THE LEGENDARY HOUSE OF ATOMIC KITSCH, takes us inside the North Hollywood home of late songwriter Allee Willis. The exquisitely crafted pop-up is a tribute to the outrageous and colorful 1937 Streamline Moderne home where she wrote hits including the theme song from Friends. The elegant house, filled with art, toys and tchotchkes that made guests smile, is reproduced with pull-tabs and cardboard wheels in a book as big as a Bundt cake that's packed with sweet surprises.
